Christmas card sale – many thanks to all who supported by coming along last Saturday morning. The Scouts were pleased to have raised £50 for their funds, and it was lovely to have them there. Stall holders varied in their opinions as to whether it was less busy than last year, or busier, but all of them felt it was well worth it for them, eg. Genesis were happy to take £110, Humane Research Trust took more than last year, and first-timers The Christie were delighted, telling us “We made £82.50 which is a very good amount for us, as our goods are very low value.” They would like to come again, and were even wondering if we did a Summer Fayre! Thank you again.
