Proposed new Boaz Trust Women's Night Shelter

Rev Steve Hough recently came to a morning service to talk about Stockport Baptist Church's work with refugees and asylum seekers. As part of this he mentioned that Stockport Baptist Church have committed to hosting a Thursday night shelter from October to April. Debs Marks-Lenton from the Boaz Trust has explained how the night shelter would operate : The women (up to a maximum of 12) would be picked up from from the Methodist Central Hall in Manchester and transported to Stockport Baptist Church where there would be a team of 3/4 people to welcome them and make them a hot meal. Then a team of 2/3 people (women) would need to sleep overnight and provide a simple breakfast for the women before they would leave to go back to Manchester the following morning (probably by bus).

Several churches have expressed an interest in supplying a team or part of a team to help with this and Steve asked if there were any people from our church (especially women) who might be ready to volunteer.

Some people have said that they would at least like to find out more. Steve needs to confirm numbers of potential helpers and arrange a meeting to discuss it in more detail.

If you would like to express an interest please let Steve know (revsrhough@gmail.com) and please copy your response to Jenni. The Boaz Trust are also hosting a couple of volunteer training days for teams in September (9th or 23rd, 10am-3pm, at Ivy Church, 97 Barlow Moor Road, Manchester, M20 2GP).

From Stephen Hough, Minister Stockport Baptists Church:

Plans for the night shelter are moving ahead - we have had an encouraging amount of people showing interest in getting involved but we now need to firm up on our detailed planning as the expected start date for the opening night is Thursday Oct 5th!

I know people still have lots of questions regarding how it is all going to work, so I propose holding a Q&A / information evening on Thursday Sept 7th at 7pm at Stockport Baptist where we can come together to ask any questions and start putting together a weekly rota, etc.

If you would like to attend the information evening, please contact Rev Hough directly (revsrhough@gmail.com) and please copy your response to Jenni, too.
