Help needed!

Please can you help? We urgently need more helpers on the drinks rota for Toddlers on Wednesday mornings. This is such a great and popular service to our community, we would be really grateful for any help to start after Christmas. If you wanted to do it as a couple or with a friend that would be fine! Please see Emma for more details.

You are invited

On Thursday 27th November at 7.30 at Styal Church we are holding a "Body Shop" fund raising evening. Admission is free (donations welcome) with refreshments. You would all be welcome to come along. It will be a great opportunity for any Christmas presents you have still to buy. Hope some of you can come.

Toy & Gift Service – 7th December 10am

The 10am service is the toy/gift service. Please bring new or good-as-new toys and gifts which will be given to families who have very little. As in previous years we are supporting the following charities who have given some ideas as to the type of gift to offer.

Trafford Young Carers Project of Action for Children particularly need toiletries for its young carers.

Stockport Without Abuse gifts for mums as well as children's toys for all ages

Family Info Link in Stockport would like toys/gifts for all age children and teenagers up to 18 years old.

In previous years Stu Burnet has taken the toys to Stockport Family Link, please could someone offer to do this? You will need to collect the toys and gifts from church between 10am and 3pm from Tuesday 9th Dec – Friday 12th December and take them to the Disability Office on High Street in Stockport. Please let Maggie know if you can.

Thank you in anticipation for your gifts.

Christmas is approaching!
